Established in 2009, with its first gallery platform in Toronto, ON Canada, Tranter-Sinni Gallery is a secondary market gallery specializing in work by Modern, pre and post-war, contemporary European and American artists. Located in the world-renowned Museo Vault Building at 350 NW 29th St. Miami, Florida.

The gallery provides an intimate space for exhibitions of art and sculpture, with a strong reputation for historically focused exhibitions. Serving an international clientele, we aim to work closely with private collections, estates, foundations and other institutions to promote the highest quality, most significant and valuable art for our collectors.

Tranter-Sinni Gallery team offers expert advice and personalized consulting services in guiding clients step by step thru the delicate process of building a noteworthy art collection. The gallery presents ten artists solo exhibitions per year, and it proudly promotes its roster at major International Art Fairs.
